

January Newsletter

So....here it is....it's 2009!!!!!!!

Now that the confetti has settled from the New Year's Celebrations, we are curious. Did you make any scrappy resolutions?? We want to know so we can help you meet them. If you vowed to get organized we want to help you by posting tips on organizing your supplies. If you vowed to learn something new every month, you can check out our monthly techniques. Did you want to create more layouts? Check out our monthly challenges! Did you vow to remember to feed your family even though you scrapped all day? Check out our easy recipe forum. Did you vow something else? Tell us here so we can help you meet it.

What did we vow, you ask? We vowed to make KnK even better in 2009 by asking you what you want to see and what we can do to help you meet your scrapbooking goals!
