KnK Welcomes Amy Wilhelms

KnK is proud to welcome Amy Wilhelms to our Design Team!

Hello, my name is Amy Wilhelms, wife to Bill, mom to Nathan (age 16), Katelynn (age 6), and Gracie (age 3). I live in beautiful Southern Oregon, though I am a California native. My sister-in-law introduced me to scrapbooking what seems like eons ago, but really it's only been about six years! I decided that before Katy was born, I was going to have all of my son's baby pictures in a scrapbook. That didn't quite pan out (still working on it) but I have been hopelessly addicted ever since. I became a member of Kit 'n Kaboodles in October 2007, and registered with the message board a few months later. I think it was probably at that point that I really started growing creatively -- being a part of KNK online exposed me to all kinds of new ideas, techniques, and amazing talent which I have learned so much from! What I love most about scrapbooking is knowing that I will leave my children with pieces of their childhood that may not remember otherwise. That just feels so great! Aside from scrapbooking I love to spend time with my family, my Creator, and the beautiful world He has given us. I love bird watching (and identifying), gardening, and photography (naturally!). I am really happy and excited to become a member of the KNK Design Team.
